About CUSB

Central University of South Bihar, Gaya, India, is one among 54 such universities of Federal Government, which come under the purview of the Department of Higher Education under the Ministry of Education of Government of India. It was established under the Central Universities Act, 2009 (Section 25 of 2009) as Central University of Bihar (CUB) and the name since changed by the Central Universities (Amendment) Act, 2014 to Central University of South Bihar (CUSB). It is an institution of higher learning in the state of Bihar. With the motto i.e. 'Collective Reasoning' the University has been conducting its academic and administrative activities from permanent campus on a 300 acre plot of land at Panchanpur, situated about 15 kms away from Gaya town.

About the Department

The School of Management at Central University of South Bihar (CUSB) currently houses the Department of Commerce & Business Studies, which was formally established in 2018. Upholding the university's tradition of academic excellence and innovation, the department is committed to exploring new frontiers of knowledge in Commerce and Management. The School's vision is to evolve into a Centre of Excellence through an interdisciplinary approach to education and research in these fields. In alignment with the university's motto, "Collective Reasoning," the department places a strong emphasis on the practical application of theoretical concepts to real-world scenarios. To enhance business acumen and employability, students are provided with holistic skill development through initiatives such as personality development programs, project work, mock interviews, and role-playing exercises.

About Workshop

The 10-days Research Methodology Workshop is designed to offer a comprehensive understanding of research practices, with a focus on the intricacies of designing and conducting methodologically sound research across various academic disciplines. This workshop is specifically tailored for research scholars and early-career researchers, providing them with essential methodological skills necessary for producing high-quality research outputs. The program integrates theoretical frameworks with practical applications, ensuring that participants can effectively apply the acquired knowledge to their respective research endeavours.

Target Audience

In accordance with ICSSR guidelines, the workshop will select 30 research scholars as participants. Of these, 10 scholars will be from within the University, 10 from institutions across Bihar, and the remaining 10 from institutions outside Bihar. The selection process will be conducted through a well-advertised call for applications, disseminated via the CUSB website and other channels to reach a wide audience of eligible candidates.

Eligibility Criteria

All registered Ph.D. and Post-Doctoral (PD) scholars from recognized Indian universities or research institutes in any branch of Social Sciences are invited to apply for this Research Methodology Course. The selection committee will review the applications and select suitable candidates. Incomplete applications, applications not submitted through the proper channel, and late submissions will not be considered under any circumstances. Candidates must submit their applications online and also send a hard copy to the Course Director via Speed Post on or before March 5, 2025 by 5:00 PM. Applications without a hard copy submission or those received after the deadline will not be considered for the selection process. The organizing committee will not be responsible for postal delays or lost mail. The list of selected candidates will be notified on March 10, 2025, and will also be displayed on the university website before the workshop begins. Priority will be given to applicants from Scheduled Castes (SCs), Scheduled Tribes (STs), and other marginalized and minority groups.

Registration Fee, Travel Allowances, and Accommodation

There is no registration fee for this 10-days Research Methodology Course. Boarding and lodging will be provided at no cost to all participants, including complimentary meals and refreshments. Accommodation for outstation participants will be arranged on sharing basis in the University hostel or guest house. Travel allowances will be provided to selected outstation participants, covering second-class/sleeper class train fare or regular bus fare, in accordance with ICSSR rules. To claim the travel allowance, participants must present their original travel tickets.
